DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES

Security Force Journeymen: Patrol controlled and restricted areas. Maintain internal and circulation controls and prevents unauthorized entry to operational resources. Communicates with security supervisors on a continuous basis. Provides input to supervisors on programs and policies affecting the security of resources assigned or attached to Portland ANG Base. Drives vehicles, operates radios and other communication equipment. Provide patrol coverage and response in the protection of Air Force/Air National Guard resources and personnel. Conduct building and area checks. Perform duties as an armed response force member. Report and follow up on suspicious activity. Challenge and detain unauthorized personnel. Respond to emergency situations, assisting in evacuations and cordoning off affected areas. Required to prepare for and support the mission through the accomplishment of duties pertaining to military training, military readiness, force protection and other mission related assignments including, but not limited to, training traditional Guard members, CWDE/NBC training, exercise participation (UEI/AFOA/ORI/ORE /UCI/MEI/OCI/IG, etc.), mobility exercise participation, FSTA/ATSO exercise participation, SABC training, LOAC training, weapons qualification training, participation in military formations, and medical mobility processing within the guidelines of NGB/ARNG/ANG/State/TAG rules, regulations, and laws.

Employee may work an uncommon tour of duty to include nights, weekends, holidays, rotating shifts and subject to recall. Will work during periods of inclement weather or other potentially hazardous or emergency situations. May need to wear special protective clothing such as coats, boots, vests, gas masks, helmets and hearing protection. May be exposed to high levels of noise such as aircraft engines.

The employee may need to travel in military and/or commercial aircraft to perform temporary duty assignments. This position is covered by the Domestic Violence Misdemeanor Amendment (30 September 1996) of the Gun Control Act (Lautenberg Amendment) of 1968. An individual convicted of a qualifying crime of domestic violence may not perform the duties of this position. The work may require the employee to drive a motor vehicle. An appropriate, valid driver's license is required for the position. Incumbent must know how to operate all Security Forces Vehicles and installed equipment. Incumbent must maintain current qualifications in the use of required weapons. Incumbent is exposed to the day-to-day dangers associated with law enforcement and security duties. This position is designated as mission essential based on local conditions. Mission essential personnel report for duty at normal times when the base is closed or other employees are allowed delayed reporting. Mission essential personnel remain on duty during phased or early release activities. Incumbent is required to obtain first responder training/certifications in CPR techniques, self-aid buddy care, and first-aid skills and complete annual recertifications. While wearing protective gear for extended periods of time, employ 'infantry/SWAT' small unit tactics involving weapon fire and maneuvers, with rapid advancing movements between defensive positions. The ability to employ "Active Shooter" response tactics and techniques, as a member of a small team, is required. Utilize the appropriate necessary force up to and including "deadly force", in the preservation of life and protection of resources vital to national security. Other duties and responsibilities assigned by the commander.
